Year 2 reading comprehension: Two letters

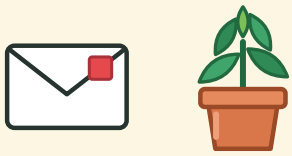

English · Reading comprehension
Level: Easy

Student: _____ Date: _____

Instructions
- Read the text first. There are 4 questions. Read each one carefully.
- Circle the best answer. Look back at the text to find the words that tell you.
- A grown-up can read the text aloud — that's fine.
- The answers are at the end. Check them together when you have finished.

Questions

Read this, then answer questions 1–4.

Two letters

Dear Mr Lee,

I am sorry that my ball broke your flower pot.

I will buy a new one with my pocket money.

From Sam

Dear Sam,

Thank you for telling me, but please keep your money.

Could you help me plant some flowers on Saturday?

From Mr Lee

1. Why did Sam write to Mr Lee?

Circle one answer.

- ○ A To say sorry about the pot
- ○ B To ask for his ball back
- ○ C To ask for help planting flowers

2. How does Sam feel about the broken pot?

Circle one answer.

○ A He does not care about the pot

○ B He feels bad about it

○ C He feels proud of what happened

---

3. How does Mr Lee feel about the broken pot?

Circle one answer.

○ A He is upset and sad ○ B He is very angry

○ C He is not cross

---

4. What did Sam's ball break?

Circle one answer.

○ A a window ○ B a flower pot ○ C a bike

Answer key

Year 2 reading comprehension: Two letters · Sheet 200001

1. A — To say sorry about the pot

The text says: “I am sorry that my ball broke your flower pot.” People write ‘I am sorry’ when they have done something wrong. So: Sam wrote to say sorry about the pot.

2. B — He feels bad about it

The text says: “I am sorry that my ball broke your flower pot.” People who say sorry and offer to fix things feel bad. So: Sam feels bad about it.

3. C — He is not cross

The text says: “Thank you for telling me, but please keep your money.” Someone who says thank you and kind things is not angry. So: Mr Lee is not cross.

4. B — a flower pot

The text says: “I am sorry that my ball broke your flower pot.” So: Sam's ball broke a flower pot.